

Book Review

Your book review should last 2-5 minutes.

You need to have the book with you to show the audience, or have a picture of the cover that you edit into the movie.

You must tell us the author(s) and illustrator of the book.

Give a summary of the book without giving away any key information or surprises in the book. Just give enough to entice the viewer to read the book.

Talk about your favorite character in the story. Why do you like this person?

Talk about a favorite scene in the book, but again, don't give away any major plot lines.

Give this book a star rating 1-5 stars. 5 is the best book ever, 1 is the worst book in history.

Tell who you'd recommend this book to.

The title of the book should be your title at the beginning of your review, and at the end, put a credit with your name, whoever filmed you, etc.